

PFRPA DENTAL PLAN OVERVIEW

In April 2017, PFRPA began notifying and enrolling members in the first-ever dental insurance program for its members, retired players that effectively retired by July 2013. The PFRPA Dental Plan, which is administered by MetLife, offers unprecedented coverage for retired players and their spouses.

WHO WE ARE

Pro Football Retired Players Association (PFRPA) is the first independent and court established retired NFL player organization, exclusively designed to develop programs and benefits for the betterment of retired NFL players. Under PFRPA, the Greater Good Fund (GGF), our 501(c)(3) charitable foundation, is developing health, welfare and educational programs for retired NFL players.

Pro Football Retired Players Association brought on WME | IMG to establish an independent agency known as the Football Greats Alliance (FGA). It creates, develops and manages new revenue streams through the strategic development of retired player publicity rights.

THOUGHTS FROM RETIRED NFL PLAYERS

“Unbelievable! I didn't think it was real when I received my card in the mail from PFRPA. I've had full mouth x-rays, a cleaning and two fillings!

- Brad Leggett, New Orleans Saints (1990-91, 93);
Detroit Lions (1992)

“Thank you, Pro Football Retired Players Association, for the Dental Plan. Used it today, and it worked perfectly. It saved me $1,000! Very much appreciated!

- Bucky Richardson, Houston Oilers (1992-94);
Dallas Cowboys (1995); Kansas City Chiefs (1996)

“I was a beneficiary of the Dental Plan this past year. Thank you!

- Joe Ehrmann, Baltimore Colts (1973-80);
Detroit Lions (1981-82)

“Thank you for the great working you are doing to help the lives of NFL players.

- Buddy Curry, Atlanta Falcons (1980-87)
